FEEDBACK FROM 15 TOTAL OBSERVERS

- M Manager (1)
- O Other Senior Leaders (2)
- P Peers (4)
- D Direct Reports (8)

They were instructed to consider the degree of behavior change observed since February 2023.

INTENDED USE

The Progress Report[®] is intended to provide feedback concerning development and behavior change. It was not created to provide information for making decisions about hiring, promotion, compensation, or termination and should not be used as the sole source of information for such decisions.

THIS REPORT IS CONFIDENTIAL AND SHOULD NOT BE DISTRIBUTED WITHOUT PERMISSION.

OVERVIEW

PURPOSE

This report provides feedback concerning behavior change and “feedforward” for your on-going development. Ratings were made on both the “degree of change” scale and the “how to improve” scale, which are shown to the right.

For the “degree of change,” raters were instructed to consider change in behavior observed since February 2023.

Degree of Change

How to Improve

SCORES

Average scores are presented for each rater group. Overall “360 scores” are presented as the average of scores across the coworker rater groups (and do not include self-ratings).

Raters were also given the option to indicate “not applicable/can’t rate”, and therefore there may be a different number of raters from item to item.

INTERPRETATION GUIDELINES

Guidelines are provided to gauge the significance of various levels of scores based on a norm sample of over 2,500 assessments. The guidelines are presented in the following way:

WRITTEN FEEDBACK

At the end of the report, you will find qualitative, written feedback to supplement the quantitative ratings. The written comments often elaborate and further clarify what the ratings mean. They may also raise some things not covered by the rating items.

CONTEXT

How confident were you when you set your goals for development that you could achieve them (in terms of improving the behaviors in your Progress Report survey)?

How much effort did you put into achieving your goals for development?

To what extent did Pat Sample share their goals and plans for development with you?

How often have you and Pat Sample discussed progress on their goals and plans for development since February 2023?

ABOUT THE PROGRESS REPORT (PR)

The Progress Report provides a missing link in leadership development efforts: a simple, intuitive, and relevant measure of behavior change and improvement. The survey items are customized based on the individual's goals for development and the specific behaviors they are trying to improve. The items are rated by the individual as well as their coworkers two times: first, to provide feedback on observed improvement and, second, to provide feedforward on how to continue improving. The PR provides quality data so leaders can calibrate how much they have moved the needle as well as how to continue getting better while coaches, development professionals, and organizations can understand the impact of their efforts and investment.
